Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Adam Lutz family immigrated to the Dakota Territory from Johannestal, Russia, in March, 1885; and,

WHEREAS, The Lutz family started the town of Greenway, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Michael Lutz, the father, homesteaded near Greenway in April, 1885, and, after five generations, is still farming the same land and the same farmstead; and,

WHEREAS, Wayne Lutz has lived on the farm since November, 1984, after his uncle, Elmer R. Lutz, retired and moved to Eureka but they are still farming together; and,

WHEREAS, On June 19 at the Greenway Reunion, during the Eureka Centennial, there will be a presentation and dedication of a book to Elmer and Wayne Lutz for still having this farmstead in the same Lutz family for over 100 years and five generations; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and appropriate for the Governor to make note of such an outstanding accomplishment within South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 19, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
